

Off the Wall Exhibition

The Downriver Council for the Arts (DCA) invites you to participate in the Off the Wall Exhibition, a special Fundraiser for the DCA. The Exhibit will be a one day sale on July 8th, 2017.

As you know the Downriver Council for the Arts has hosted many events and classes for all ages, contributing to the cultural life of the downriver area and beyond. This important fundraiser will help raise money to continue and expand our programs and maintain our gallery spaces.

Here's how the Off the Wall Exhibition works:

Artists who choose to accept this invitation will create a work of art in any medium of your choice on 11"x14" stretched canvas (You must provide wire hanger across the back). This is open to DCA members and non-members.

Please check one:

I will have my own 11"x14" stretched canvas.

I would like the DCA to provide my 11"x14" stretched canvas. (Pick-up canvasses at the DCA through Thursday, June 15th.)

- The unframed 11"x14" artwork and this agreement must be dropped off at the DCA gallery by Thursday, July 6th.
- The artwork will be considered a generous tax deduction donated to DCA - a letter for tax purposes will be provide upon request.
- The artwork will be displayed on Saturday, July 8, 2017 and each piece will be priced at $35, cash & carry. We hope to have over 100 pieces. Artists may donate as many pieces as they want.
- The DCA is located in Wyandotte, a family friendly public facility. Subject matter must be appropriate for general audience

Please sign and return this invitation as soon as possible. It will serve as an official agreement of your participation. Questions: call the DCA at 734-720-0671.
